

1. General

The General Terms for Purchases shall be applied in business between the seller, later Seller, and Lindström Group, later Customer, in such a case that the purchase order from the Customer is not referring to a valid frame contract or any other mutually agreed arrangement.

2. Products

The Seller is responsible for that all products supplied by him have been manufactured in accordance with all standards set on a single product and that they fulfil all requirements stipulated in legislation and regulations. In case country specific certificates are needed when exporting the products The Seller is responsible for application and cost of such documents unless otherwise agreed upon in writing between the contract parties.

The Seller provides the Customer with valid certificates for all products included in delivery based on a purchase order referring to these General Terms for Purchases.

3. Price

The net price, the Seller has given in his offer is fixed.

4. Term of Payment

30 days net

5. Invoicing

The purchase order number or the reference of the Customer shall be mentioned in the Invoice.

When using a consolidated invoice, each purchase order shall be mentioned separately on the invoice.

6. Term of Delivery

DAP, INCOTERMS 2010, place named by the Customer

7. Time of delivery

The products are delivered from the Seller's warehouse within 2 days from the purchase order unless something else is agreed upon on the purchase order from the Customer.

The Seller shall inform the Customer without any delay, in writing (e-mail/fax) about delayed delivery and about the new binding time of delivery for the order.

8. Deliveries

The Customer sends the Seller a separate purchase order in writing for the assignment. The delivery shall be done in accordance with the Customer's packing and delivery instructions.

9. Claims

The Customer puts in a claim for defect detected in the delivery (defected product, wrong delivery, other defect). A claim in writing is put immediately when the defect is detected. The claim shall be put in within a reasonable period of time after delivery. For hidden defects the Customer reserves the right to put in his claim even after a longer period of time.

The Seller shall send a credit note to the Customer for justified claims.

10. Training and launch of new products

The Seller shall arrange, at his own expense, training for the personnel of the Customer in using his new products at separately agreed point of time.

11. Confidentiality

The Customer and the Seller, incl. their representatives, are committed not to disclose to third parties any details of the contents of the purchase order/contract unless that is necessary to fulfil the obligations of the purchase order/contract. The Seller and the Customer are committed not to disclose any information about financials, technology or business they may learn from each other during the order/contract is in process. The latter mentioned information is not applicable for information which is commonly known or has been brought to one's knowledge without clause of confidentiality from third party or the Seller or Customer has authentically learnt prior to receiving the information from the other party. Both parties are committed by this confidentiality clause to ensure that the confidentiality also covers their own personnel, consultants and sub-suppliers as far as possible.

This confidentiality clause also covers the commitment not to use the received information for any other purposes than mentioned on the purchase order or in contract.

All specifications, drawings and technical documents of respective product or manufacturing of it, delivered before or after the purchase order/contract, the Seller or the Customer delivers to the other party remain in the possession of the delivering party. Received specifications, drawings, technical documents or technical information must not, without permission of the other party, be used for other purposes than those of the purchase order/contract.

The Seller is not entitled to use the Customer as a reference in his sales and marketing without a written consent from the Customer.

Company belonging to the same group of companies of Customer/Seller is not regarded as external or third party.

12. Disputes

Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this contract, or the breach, termination or validity thereof shall in first place settled in negotiations between the parties. If mutual understanding in these negotiations is not reached the dispute shall finally be settled in District Court of Helsinki.